Shipleys has a tradition of overnight production of a commentary on the Chancellor's budget

Budget Summary 24 March 2010

The news that one of our senter and mean THE BUDGET tees has solved the tees to be and terting A blow-by-blow account of the production and delivery of over 3½ thousand copies of the firm's Budget Summary would be almost as long as the Summary itself - and I cannot inflict another 25 pages on you. Suffice it to say that a cast of hundreds (or nearly tens) contributed to this epic and I should like to seize this chance to applaud their efforts. Without our typists, printer, collators and deliverers our overnight efforts would have been wasted. For that reason the list line and worm (or dynamite) - never! below is in alphabetical order.
